

Mission statement

1. My organization intends to educate visitors
2. My organization aims to promote learning amongst visitors
3. My organization seeks to activate learners
4. My organization promotes learning dialogues amongst, and with visitors
5. My organization wishes to establish a learning environment for all people involved

Organising the content

1. My organization knows what content to transmit to the visitors
2. My organization has an overview of the various learning domains included in the offer
3. My organization differentiates between content domains, and competence domains
4. My organization organizes visitors trajectories to promote learning of and amongst visitors
5. My organization organizes learning as a mutual process between visitors and learning facilitators (for instance guides)

Organising a network of actors, stakeholders, beneficiaries

1. My organization includes various people in arranging visitors activities
2. My organization has a clear division of tasks amongst the involved facilitators of learning
3. My organization actively promotes the educative professional development of staff involved
4. My organization links its (learning) activities to the wider context of the visitors
5. My organization engages in creating a learning environment for visitors involving also other partners/organisations and sites

Applying a learning oriented methodology

1. My organization has a methodology to promote learning amongst visitors
2. My organization has a methodology to engage the visitors in active learning
3. My organization has a methodology to promote interactive learning
4. My organization actively involves visitors in processes shared learning
5. My organization has clear methodology to select the right activities, tasks and assignment to help visitors explore, experience and acquire competences relevant to them.

Acknowledging the learning outcomes of visitors

1. My organization monitors the learning processes of visitors
2. My organization assesses the learning processes of the visitors
3. My organization provides visitors with a tangible item to remind them of their accomplishments
4. My organization provides visitors who so wish with a meaningful badge
5. My organization has a system of badges that indicate the shown level of learning

The use of ICT to optimize learning

1. My organization makes use of ICT for learning purposes
2. My organization differentiates between tools depending on the level of learning aimed for
3. My organization uses ICT tools to promote interactive and interpersonal learning
4. My organization uses ICT to monitor and assess learning
5. My organization uses ICT to assess and badge learning processes and provide level feedback